

Brian Noonan scored the winning goal in game 7 of the 1994 Stanley cup and he has a sign in Old Colony Housing to recognize him 1 pt	The ultimate neighborhood spot, Mul's Diner on Broadway is a Southie treasure. Famous for breakfast it is the classic old-school diner. 1 pt	Social Wines is the general location, but you have to be exact here. 3 pts	Georgia White Marble 1902 bear in mind 115 ft 5 pts	Hellen Keller learned to communicate at the Perkins School . She didn't attend the Southie location but it used to be in the South Boston District Municipal Court building on E. Broadway. 1 pt
Harvard? No thanks I'd rather hop, skip, jump a boat to Athens. 5 pts	She looks like her cousin that has been floating since 1797, only she is on the ground in Moakley Park and only has two masts. 3 pts	Since 1901 "The Ollie," on H Street, has been helping to preserve family and neighborhood life through programs for all ages. 1 pt	Carson Beach is a great place to layout, play in the sand and get wet. But, playing shuffleboard may just be what is best about the beach. 1 pt	Boston may not be the bread basket of America, but you can give farming a try here on Flaherty Way. 3 pts
I don't know whether to eat or just look at them. Sweet Tooth on West Broadway is a must see (and maybe taste) for any window shoppers. 1 pt	St. Peter's School was run by the church for 60 years until it was announced in 2005 that it was being closed. The parents said "No" and it went private. 1 pt	Saunder's Stadium 5 pts	5 x Box Jumps 10 x Burpees 15 x Pull-Ups 20 x Sit Ups If you took a class here they will make you repeat 3 times. 5 pts	The first Boys' Club opened in 1860 in Connecticut and the organization changed its name to Boys and Girls Club in 1990. The Southie Club opened in 1938 on West Sixth. 1 pt
Thornton Flowers at 111 Dorchester may be the biggest movie star we have in Southie. She starred in a Ben Affleck movie in 2009. 3 pt	The original Bishop of Boston bought the land that is now St. Augustine's Chapel and Cemetery on Dorchester Street. 1 pt	Wanna be fashionable in Southie? Give Habit on Broadway a chance. Plus they will let you throw free parties. Awesome! 1 pt	Can you catch a photo of another team? Word: British Fleet 7 pts	No Man's Land is an appropriate name for this strip of land between the High School and Dorchester Heights. But it is a nice shady escape from the summer heat. 1 pt
Get the names of the three veterans and the service they were in 2 pts	Location of 5 shamrocks in Southie 2 pts	Bring back 5 items with 02127 on them 2 pts	Total number of American flags you see on the hunt 2 pts	What do these words mean in Southie? Spuckie: Greeny: Boss of Pepsi: 3 pts
If you were at Moakley Courthouse and wanted seafood with great views of the harbor, this is where you would go. 5 pts	Go "Plain," "All-Around," or "All-Inc" at this Southie favorite located in a replica of officer's quarters. 5 pts	This memorial is surrounded by sounds of children laughing most days, but veterans of this war were not welcomed like this when they returned. 3 pts	This East Southie Statue has been known to be a Bruins fan (he wears their jerseys sometimes!).	Located on the Southernmost tip of South Boston, this is a restful place on Mother's daily harborwalk
The "Southie House" on E 5 th , between N & O represents the best of 02127 pride. 1 pt	What is better? 300 Tequilas or a great view of the harbor? At Temazcal you can decide. 1 pt	Eat, drink, be Local. 5pts	An old Italian bakery with very fresh pastries 1 pt	Find the South Boston Sports Hall of Fame 3 pts
Sister Mary Veronica Park is best known for this mold of motherhood. 1 pt	The Paraclete on E Street provides a rich and successful education environment for children in Southie. 1 pt	Marine Park is the appropriate place for this ancient steel giant. 3 pts	The Fireman's Museum has been open since 1983 and it supports learning about one of the oldest fire fighting forces on Congress St. 1 pt	The Children's Museum was originally located in Jamaica Plain in 1913 by a group of teachers. It is now on Congress St and still supports curiosity. 1 pt
Depending on how you believe they got their name this is our dirtiest location. Go to the Golden Stairs 1 pt	It was Castle William, then Fort Adams, then a prison. Since 1797 it has just been Fort Independence 3 pts	Iced slush and the beach? It can't be beat. Well maybe if my Grammy served it.	On Castle Island, walk behind Sully's for a stretch. Find the James F. Dahill Harborview	This is the only memorial we have for this 1898 War. Even if this small plaque remembers men that didn't actually die in the two main theaters of combat.